KINGSTON FAMILY HEALTH TEAM'S NEW CLINIC OPENS ITS DOORS

Kingston, ON – Construction of the Centennial Family Physicians new medical office on the second floor of the Shopper's Drug Mart building at 2437 Princess Street has been completed. The Kingston Family Health Team's physicians currently practising at 797 Princess Street (Suite 312) will be moving to the new location on Friday, March 6 with the clinic open to patients on Tuesday, March 10. The Kingston Family Health Organization's After Hours Centre (AHC) will relocate to the new site May 4. The Team's Allied Health Professionals will remain at the 797 Princess Street (Suite 102).

The new state-of-the-art facility will be home to 11 family physicians and features 10,000 square feet of fully accessible clinic space. The physicians moving their practice to the new clinic are Drs. William Aspy, Luigi Battel, Laura DiQuinzio, Brian Farnell, Robert French, David Hurst, Courtney Meier, Murray Overington, Catherine Robinson, Katrina Stevens, and Colleen Webster. The clinic is conveniently located on a public transportation route at the corner of Princess Street and Centennial Drive and offers ample free parking.

The Kingston Family Health Team is accepting new patients who are without a family physician. Anyone without a family doctor is encouraged to visit the Kingston Family Health Team locations at 797 Princess Street (Suite 206), 800 Princess Street (Suite 401), or the new location at 2437 Princess Street (Suite 200) to roster. Please bring your valid Ontario Health Card. Parents/guardians may register their children without them being present if they have the child's valid Ontario Health Card and the child is under the age of 16 years.
